TRAVELING MAN'S EXPERIENCE.

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from 4 a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose, according to the directions, and went to sleep after the second dose. At 5 o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man, but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere. —Adv. d&w

DAILY EXPRESS ICE BLANKET

Saves 1/2 Your Ice Bills.

To its many subscribers, old and new, the Daily Express is offering a most unique premium that should at once become popular in every home in Chickasha where there is a refrigerator or ice box. The blanket is made of vegetable parchment, is thoroughly sanitary, and its value lies in the fact that it excludes heat from the outside and retains the cold air beneath. Just place the blanket loose over exposed side of ice, top or front, tucking the edges in. It will keep the outside warm air from coming in contact with the ice and save one half, and will not decrease refrigeration. The blanket is not porous so it will not become musty or strong smelling, won't dissolve or go to pieces when wet, so you need have no fear of clogging the drain pipe. Don't use any more porous, unsanitary cloths, burlap sacks or newspapers on your ice.

The only consideration necessary to secure one of these blankets, is to pay one month's subscription in advance to the Daily Express—forty cents—and our solicitor, or collectors, and you one of the blankets may be obtained on the same terms at the Daily Express office.

If you do not desire to advance your subscription one month, the ice blanket may be bought at this office. Price 10 cents.

Nationalism in Literature.

"The process of reading is not a half sleep, but, in the highest sense, an exercise, a gymnast's struggle." A civilization in which thinking is not athletic, and feeling not intense, is a civilization without the fire of life. Nationalism in literature, therefore, requires that the infant industry be protected, but not at the expense of its vitality. We must conspire for our Mark Twains, our Stephen Cramés, our O. Henrys, our Finley Duncans, our Sarah Orne Jewetts, our George Adams. But to vindicate these real interpreters is not our sole concern. Against our false interpreters and their subservient public, we must, if we are to have a true literature in America, stand destructive and irreconcilable.—The New Republic.

In every home where there is a baby there should also be a bottle of McGee's Baby Elixir. It may be needed at any time to correct sour stomach, wind colic, diarrhoea or summer complaint. It is a wholesome remedy, contains no opium, morphine or injurious drug of any kind. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by Owl Drug Store.—Adv. d&w
